

LUMICOR'S LIMITED WARRANTY

Lumicor warrants our products against manufacturer defects for up to one year from the time of purchase. Core material pattern irregularities and / or dye lot variances are inherent to the product and should not be considered defective. Defects which result from freight claims, negligence, misuse, or accidents are not covered under warranty and Lumicor disclaims all other warranties, expressed or implied, including the warranty of fitness for a particular purpose. Lumicor will, at our discretion, either refund the purchase price or replace products found defective after verification of the warranty claim.
